OUR RELIGIOUS COLUMN.

JESUS, SAVIOUR, PILOT ME Jesus, Saviour, pilot me Over life's tempestuous sea; Unknown waves before me ro'l, Hiding rock and treacherous shoal; Chart and compass came from Thee: Jesus, Saviour, pilot me.

When the Apostles' fragile bark Struggled with the billows dark, On the stormy Galliee,
Thou didst walk upon the sea;
And when they beheld Thy form,
Safe they glided through the storm. Though the sea be smooth and bright, Sparklingswith the stars of night, And my ship's path be ablaze
With the light of baleyon days,
Still, I know my need of Thee;
Jesus, Saviour, pilot me.

When the darkling heavens frown, And the wrathful winds come down, And the fierce waves, tossed on high, Lash themselves against the sky, Jesus, Saviour, pilot me

Over life's tempestuous sea. As a mother stills her child Thou canst hush the ocean wild: Bolsterous waves obey Thy will When Thou sayest to them "Be still." Wondrous Sovereign of the Sea, Jesus, Saviour, pilot me,

When at last I near the shore, And the fearful breakers roar Twixt me and the peaceful rest, Then, while leaning on Thy breast, May I hear Thee say to me, "Fear not, I will pilot thee!"

HE BARE OUR SINS. He bare sin as a heavy burden; so the word "bearing" imports in general, and those two words used by the prophet (Isaiah liii, 4), to which these allude, imply the bearing of some great mass or load. And surely that which pressed Him so sore who upholds heaven and earth, no other could have sustained or surmounted. Was it, think you, the pain of that common outside of His death, though very painful, that drew such words from Him—"My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" No, it was this burden of sin, the first of which was committed in the garden of Eden, that then began to be fastened upon His shoulder in the garden of Gethsemane. This was the cup He trembled at, more than gall and vinegar, or any part of His external sufferings. It was the bitter cup of wrath due to sin, which the Father put into His hand and caused Him to drink—the very same thing that is here called the bearing of our sins in His body.

Now, amongst these were even those sins we call small. If the greater were as the spear that pierced His side, the less were as the nails that pieced His hands and His feet, and the very least as the thorns that were set on His precious head. "The Lord laid on Him the iniquity of us all," "that we being dead to sin should live unto righteousness."—Archbishop Leighton.

SUMMARY OF CHURCH NEWS. PRESETTERIAN.

-The Seventh Avenue Church in the city of New York, the late charge of Professor James Harper, now of the Theological Seminary at Newburg, have unanimously called the Rev. S. H. Graham, of Burgettstown, Pa., to become their pastor.

-The Seventh Church, Pittsburg, Pa. (the Rev. W. H. Andrew pastor), has been much prospered during the last year. Since the meeting of the General Assembly in May last, eighty members have been received, twenty-four of whom were enrolled at the communion held on the first Sabbath of March.

—The Petersburg (Va.) Index says:—"On Sunday, the 19th of March, the Rev. John Miller, the esteemed pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of this city, in an address to his congregation, offered his resignation, to take effect on the 15th of June next."

-The Rev. John E. DuBose, formerly pastor of the Tallahassee Church, Florida, and now so successfully acting as an evangelist in Fiorida Presbytery, has accepted an invitation to Frank-

-The Second Presbyterian Church, Richmend, Va. (Kev. Dr. Hoge, pastor), has for more than a year past been blessed with much prosperity. The attendance has been very large, not only on the Sabbath, but at the weekly lecture also. On last Sabbath week twenty-one persons were announced as members added to the roll, having been received by the session, as the custom in this church is, at various times between one communion season and another. Of these, thirteen were upon profession. The whole number added since last spring is ninety-five, sixty-three of whom were upon profession.

—The Sustentation Fund of the Irish Presbyterian Church has progressed so satisfactorily that, taken along with the commutation fund, the committee expect to be in circumstances to be able to pay to all ministers who entered into the general arrangement the sum of £80 on the first year, instead of the old payment of £69 6s. Sd. from the Regium Donum. Upwards of £400,000 has been paid as commutation money, and twelve per cent. bonus by the Church Temporalities Commissioners to the Treasurer of the General Assembly of the Church.

-The United Presbyterian Board of Missions to the Freedmen report gratifying results from their work. In Nashville the schools are full, and the congregation and Sabbath-school in a healthy condition. In Vicksburg a marked and gratifying change is manifest since the last statement was published. The school is more than full this quarter. The first month of the previous quarter 170 were enrolled; the first month of the present quarter, 317. The second menth of the previous quarter 225 were en-rolled; the second month of the present quarter, 409, and quite a number were turned away for lack of accommodations. The attendance upon ordinances on the Sabbath is rapidly increasing. CONGREGATIONAL.

The High Street and Richmond Street Congregational Churches in Providence, Rhode Island, have united, and are building a church at a cost of $150,000.

Charleston, S. C., was laid March 20. The pastor, the Rev. James T. Ford, gave an address, in which he alluded to the fact that since the burning of the old Circular Church in December, 1861, this people have had no church home. The new building is to cost

-An item in the daily papers, dated Chicago, March 15, says: - There is unquestion for the statement that second trial of the Rev. Charles Edward Cheney will take place in a short time, because of his persistency in officiating in Christ Church, in defiance of the decision of the Ecclesiastical Court, which was recently promulgated. A formal deposition must certainly be the result of it, and then may follow a legal contest for the church property, upon which there is said to be a debt of $35,000."

"The Rev. Mr. Cheney, of Christ Church, having disregarded the sentence of the Ecclesiastical Court, having ignored his official suspension, and having continued in the discharge of the duties of his office, there is a natural inquiry as to what can or will be done next? Mr. Cheney, it is understood, proposes to continue as pastor so long as he is sustained in so doing by the congregation or its official organization. Among the canons of the Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Illinois is one prescribing the form of constitution for each parish. The first section of this constitution reads:—

"This parish, as a constituent part of the Protestant Episcopal Church, in the Diocese of Protestant Episcopal Church, in the Diocese of Protestant Episcopal Church, in the Diocese of Illinois, expressly accedes to, recognizes, and adopts the constitution, canons, doctrines, discipline, and worship of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this diocese, and acknowledges their authority accordingly.

Consequently, the authority of the trustees is confined to holding the property in trust for that church, in accordance with the provision of its constitution just quoted, and they have no discretion to make any other disposition of the Can the majority of the congregation of Christ Church, or the trustees, hold this property for public worship against the judgment of a court suspending the clergyman, and thereby rendering his ministry unlawful and in rebellion against the ministry unlawful and in rebellion against the constitution and canons of the Church, both of the United States and the Diocese of Illinois? "This question was determined as late as January last by the Supreme Court of Pennsyl-January last by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. A controversy had arisen in the German Reformed Church of Butler county. The church property was held by the church authorities for the uses of the church, 'according to the faith and discipline of the German Reformed Evangelical Church in the United States of America.' The large majority of the congregation insisted on having a pastor who was not 'in good standing in connection with the Synod of the German. on having a paster who was not 'in good stand-ing in connection with the Synod of the German Reformed Church.' The minority of the con-gregation, adhering to the authority of the general government of the Church, at the elec-tions during Easter week, selected a consistory, and the majority chose another. These two sets of officers then appealed to the courts, the majority, meanwhile, remaining in possession. "The Supreme Court decided that in church associations those who adhere to the regular order of the church, though a minority, are the true congregation or corporation, and entitled to the possession of the Church property. This decision was the unanimous judgment of the court, who, upon the precedents, accepted it as the established law of the country. It asserts that when trustees undertake to hold property contrary to the terms of the trust, equity will interpose and create new trustees to execute the original purpose.

"In Easter week the annual election for wardens and vestrymen will take place at Christ Church. It is possible that a minority of the voters—those adhering to the Episcopal authority of the Church—may effect an official organization, and in that case, probably, legal measures will be resorted to, to recover the possession of the church from Mr. Cheney. The result of such a step, should it be taken, can hardly be doubtful, if this view of the law here stated be the correct one." stated be the correct one.'

WHAT KIND OF BREAD IS THE BEST?

Aerated Bread is the Furest, Healthiest, Sweetest, Cleanest, Most Nutritious, and Cheapest Ever Made.

READ THE PROOF.

The sample of Acrated Bread submitted to me has been subjected to careful analysis, and I find it free from all traces of any deleterious substances or impurity, is perfectly light, pleasant to the taste, free from all acidity, and easy of digestion. The fact that it is made without yeast renders it better fitted for dyspeptic stomachs than bread made in the ordinary way. The great care taken in maintaining perfect cleanliness during the manufacture, the dough not being allowed to come in contact with the workmen's hands even for a moment, should satisfy the most fastidious. For obvious hygienic reasons, in its influence on the public health it is beyond doubt the best of all forms of bread.

WM. E. A. AIKIN, Professor of Chemistry and Pharmacy, University of Maryland.

Professor George Hadly, M. D., of Buffalo Medical College, speaking of Aerated Bread, says:—"I have used it constantly in my family The celebrated Dr. Alcott, in his lectures on Life and Health, says:—"Neither leaven nor yeast ought ever to have been known. They are a filthy concern; besides, fermented bread is a semi-putrid bread; that is, it has advanced one step on the highway to Putrefuction. In fermentation, a portion of the saccharine matter, the life or vitality of the bread, is lost. There is from 7 to 10 per cent. more nutrition in the same weight, by chemical test."

Bread furnished for charitable purposes at a low price.

CAKES and CRACKERS, the best in the city. Extra liberal discount to country trade. Sold by all grocers throughout the city.
